

SAM LANGFORD DETERMINED TO WIN NEGRO TITLE BELT

'OWN REFEREE'

After Years of Effort, Sam Has Opportunity to Win Championship.

MEETS THOMPSON MONDAY

Jack and Manager Due to Arrive in Tulsa Today or Tomorrow.

Sam Langford, negro heavyweight boxer, who meets Jack Thompson in the 15-round main event of the Tulsa Athletic club's card at Convention hall next Monday night, arrived in Tulsa last night, bringing with him his "own referee." That referee is the mighty light atom which Sam counts on to end Thompson's negro heavyweight title aspirations.

After years of ring activity during which time he has become one of the greatest boxers in the world, Sam is now returning to one of his own colors to meet him, and the referee has established when Langford received the crown for the white race, Langford has an opportunity to win his greatest fight. The $1,000 belt offered for the negro heavyweight championship is in his hands.

Oklahoma eleven have won two and lost two interstate games to date. Austin college of Sherman, Texas, defeated Southeastern normal of Durant while the Haskell Indians of Kansas won from the Aggies. Phillips' victory over Texas and a 1 to 6 defeat of Southeastern college of Winfield, Kan., enabled Oklahoma eleven to even up the score with out-of-state teams.

As predicted before the start of the season football in Oklahoma colleges and high schools is enjoying its best year, both in class of play and interest in the sport. Last year, only five college games to the exclusion of their schedules while several did not attempt to start. This season 13 Oklahoma collegiate eleven are in the field, including the "big four" composed of Kendall, Oklahoma, Aggies and Phillips and the secondary schools, comprising Central, Northwestern, East Central, Southern, Southeastern, North Eastern, Kingfisher, Catholic and Baptists. Every secondary school, with the exception of Central, abandoned football last season or previously.

ALTOONA SHOPMEN STRIKE IS ENDED AND MEN RETURN

Altoona shopmen are due in Tulsa today or tomorrow and both principals will conclude active training this week in some gymnasium here.

Seas are selling unusually fast, the memory of the previous 15-round draw between Sam and Jack acting as an incentive for the fans to get their tickets early. Seats are on sale at Pete Martin's Sport pavilion and the Arcades pool hall, 8 East Third street.

Decision. Teals was as green as they make 'em at the time and Beckett a veteran. People who have seen Teals recently may be doubtful of his championship hopes in a jiffy. Teals is 23, height six feet two inches, weight 190 pounds.

Before he leaves for his former home in England, Ted "Kid" Lewis, former welterweight champion, will receive an offer to box Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion of the Yuma, Ariz., and the Yuma and grabbed the bout. He fought Wolgast in a 19-round bout tonight.

Morrissey has had a world of experience the last few months and has been jumping all over the west.

While in Vancouver, B. C., recently, he received an offer to box Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion of the Yuma, Ariz., and grabbed the bout. He fought Wolgast in a 19-round bout tonight.

Lee has signed a contract with the Yuma promoters for three fights. His first will be against a boy named "Kid" Beaver next week. He will tangle with Bobby Waugh and Joe Rivers in the other two contests.

The reason for the challenge to Leonard is that Lewis off Labor day, defeated Mike O'Dowd, in Syracuse.

Leonard offered to fight O'Dowd recently, and Lewis believes that he is more entitled to the match than the western boy. In the recent bout between Leonard and Lewis opinion was about evenly divided on who won the fight.
